RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 71

House Concurrent Resolution 71, sponsored by Senator Hershman:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Jan Hinkle.

Whereas, Jan Hinkle, a retired Kokomo teacher, is a recent winner of the RTV 6 Leadership Award for her efforts to help the children in the slums of Nairobi, Kenya;

Whereas, Jan Hinkle began the Bright Star School in November 2003 in four rooms that she rented for $13 a month per room;

Whereas, The rooms had dirt floors and were made of used, twisted metal sheets;

Whereas, In February 2004, after suffering a heart attack, Jan Hinkle felt that God was reminding her of her own mortality and that she should put the money God had blessed her with to good use;

Whereas, Jan Hinkle used the money to purchase land in the slums from the Kenyan government, hire a contractor, purchase building materials, and construct a permanent building for the Bright Star School;

Whereas, When completed, the Bright Star School had eight stone classrooms, a bathroom, a girls' dormitory with a bathroom, an office, and living quarters with a bathroom for the school director and his family;

Whereas, With donations from friends, family, and others, construction was completed on a training center, two more classrooms, and a kitchen;

Whereas, In order to protect the orphans who are permanently housed at the Bright Star School, a security wall was rebuilt, four bathrooms were added, and one classroom was converted into a boys' dormitory;

Whereas, Today the Bright Star school is attended by 380 children every day and provides a home for 55 orphans; and

Whereas, Through her strong belief in God and her compassion for those less fortunate than herself, Jan Hinkle has improved the lives of children who had been living in deplorable conditions and has given them hope for a brighter future: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly recognizes the efforts of Jan Hinkle to improve the lives of children living in desperate situations. Her selflessness has given these children a reason to hope and a way to improve their lives. Jan Hinkle is truly a great Hoosier and an outstanding American.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to Jan Hinkle.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 100

Senate Concurrent Resolution 100, introduced by Senators Lubbers and Lanane:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to honor the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra and thank the musicians and staff for their outstanding service to our community, especially their outreach to our schools and students.

Whereas, The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra is a full-time, professional orchestra that performs 200 concerts a year for more than 350,000 people. It is the largest performing arts organization in the state of Indiana, and one of only eighteen year-round orchestras in the nation;

Whereas, The mission of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra is to advance the enjoyment and appreciation of symphonic music through performances at the highest artistic level and conduct innovative programs that challenge, educate, enrich, and entertain patrons of all ages;

Whereas, The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra's Arts Everyday program won the Mayor's Award for Excellence in Education. When Mayor Peterson presented the award at Flanner House Elementary School, the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra's percussion ensemble performed, making a positive impact for music education in our public schools;

Whereas, When Indianapolis Public School #21 was due to close at the end of the year, the symphony and the Theatre of Inclusion brought the Art of Transition into classrooms, demonstrating to students that through determination and their own ingenuity, they can retain their confidence and strength to embrace change when going to a new school, encountering hardship, or making new friends;

Whereas, Pre-schools through middle schools can take advantage of several types of music kits from the symphony to introduce rhythm, counting, ethnicity, and instruments to their students. In addition, teacher training sessions are offered throughout the year for teachers to renew, re-energize and interact together;

Whereas, In 2006, over 26,000 students attended the Young People's Discovery Concerts at the Hilbert Circle Theatre. In 2007, these concerts will encourage children to find heroes in their communities and in themselves; and

Whereas, The extraordinary outreach of the Indianapolis

Symphony Orchestra has enriched the education of countless young Hoosiers. We thank the musicians and staff and wish them continued success in the future: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. The Indiana General Assembly honors the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra and thanks the musicians and staff for their outstanding service to our community, especially their outreach to our schools and students.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra President and CEO Simon Crookall and Vice President of Education Beth Perdue Outland.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsor: Representative Austin.
